

Core Knowledge & Competencies Phone Conference 5/7/08

Participant Agenda

Purpose

To hear state experts discuss how the Core Knowledge & Competencies document can help build your teaching and administrative skills to give children the best early learning experience possible. You'll also discover how Core Knowledge relates to your own successful professional development especially when it comes to Step Up To Quality

Expert Speakers

Terrie Hare

Bureau Chief
Bureau of Child Care and Development
Ohio Department of Job & Family Services

James A. Scott, Jr., Ph.D.,

Director Head Start State Collaboration Office
Ohio Department of Education

Donna Ruhland

Director of Professional Development
Ohio Child Care Resource & Referral Association

Kathy Reschke, Ph.D.

Early Development and Learning Consultant
ChildWise Resources

Materials

- This Agenda
- PowerPoint
- Uses of Core Knowledge
- PD Framework Tree
- Core Knowledge - Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Materials will be posted on the Build Ohio Web site May 6th.
Go to www.build-ohio.org and click on "Publications & Links."

- If you have questions before the conference call, please send them to info@occrra.org so we can incorporate them into our discussion.
- If you have questions during the Q & A period, press 0 then 1 and follow the prompts. Q & A takes place at approximately 1:40 p.m.

Schedule

1:00 – 1:10 p.m.

Introduction

Miranda Terrill, Murphy Epson

1:10 – 1:45 p.m.

PowerPoint Presentation

Terrie Hare

James A. Scott, Jr.

Donna Ruhland

Kathy Reschke

1:45 – 2:00 p.m.

Q & A

Open to callers

Brought to you by the Ohio Department of Health and supported in part by HRSA State Early Childhood Comprehensive System grant #H25MCO1324